

What is the KURIOS Conference?

This conference gets its name from the Greek word 'kurios' which means Lord. It is the name that was given to Christ "so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2:10-11)

It is our intent each year to study topics which relate directly to the Lordship of Christ Jesus; to answer two primary questions: 1. Who is our Lord and God? And 2. How should we live as citizens of his kingdom?

We invite you to join us for the 2018 Kurios Conference.

It is our desire that united as Christians, we can come together to study the word of God and learn more about him.

CONFERENCE 2018

WORSHIP

Saturday 14th April
New Plymouth

WORSHIP:

“All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord; they will bring glory to your name. For you are great and do marvelous deeds; you alone are God” ~ Psalm 86:9-10

Christian churches around the world display a remarkable diversity and variety in their worship practices. Sometimes this is the result of culture: African churches worship differently than Korean churches. Tradition also influences worship: Singing only Psalms or only modern songs. Even budget has an effect: can you afford to hire a full-time worship leader?

But this raises questions: are there broader principles which lie underneath our choices? Where would we find those principles? Is local preference the primary guide? Is the consumer always right?

“Christians believe, that true worship is the highest and noblest activity of which man, by the grace of God, is capable.” ~ John Stott

SPEAKER: Andrew Young

After an early career as a university lecturer in Soil Science, Andrew Young was called into pastoral ministry and served first as the pastor of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Christchurch and then the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Indooroopilly, Brisbane, Australia.

In 1995 he was asked to serve as founding Principal of Grace Theological College in Auckland. 13 years later Andrew returned briefly to pastoral ministry before his wife's serious illness necessitated his retirement in order to care for her.

From 2012 until the present, Andrew has acted as the Director of the Ezra ministry, a writing, research, and teaching ministry committed to promoting the spiritual development of leaders.

He has just recently returned from speaking at a conference in Singapore on God's glory. We are very excited to have him come and speak here in New Plymouth.
